SETTING STUDENT ACTIVITIES APART

The SOFC processed $22,229,065 in transactions in FY20 despite closures and limited services due to COVID-19. From March-August 2020, 4,838 e-forms and $400K in deposits were received, allowing recognized student organizations to continue conducting business during the pandemic.

StuAct is home to 13 high impact practices including the Maroon & White Leadership Fellows Program. The M&W Program consists of 137 active fellows and 192 leadership coaches: faculty, staff, and administrators representing 12 colleges and 30 offices.

STRATEGIC PRIORITIES

Identify and address systemic, policy, procedural, and ceremonial aspects of our programs, services, and resources that perpetuate inequities and biases for our staff, students, and recognized student organizations.

Develop and procure new and innovative technological solutions that enhance the delivery of services, maximize learning and communication, and create process efficiencies for both resource administrators and users.
